

in a former grocery store on the corner of Kingsley and Detroit Streets in Kerrytown. In the coming years they expanded their deli, adding dry goods, cheeses, pastries, breads, and desserts. What started as a conversation between friends has grown into a world-famous business providing legendary sandwiches and other delicacies to hungry customers.

Since first opening in 1982, Zingerman's has expanded, growing into a family of businesses, but they've kept their promise to remain close to home in Washtenaw County, where they employ over 700 full-time and part-time staff. From the hand-crafted cheeses of Zingerman's Creamery to the sweet treats of Zingerman's Candy Manufactory, they have something for everyone. In addition to their food offerings and event spaces, Zingerman's ZingTrain shares their unique business model with clients from all sections of industry, training them in topics like leadership and customer service. The stellar team is what makes Zingerman's so special. No matter their position, every employee has a say in how the business makes decisions due to their open-book management system, cultivating a family environment and making it a great place to work.

In addition to their successful businesses, Zingerman's has done their part to better our community. In 1988 they founded Food Gatherers, a food rescue program that feeds the hungry in Washtenaw County. They started off collecting produce and other goods from grocery stores and restaurants and redistributed it to hot meal programs in Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti. Now Food Gatherers has grown to operate food pantries, provide support services for those looking to take advantage of food benefits, and running food distributions. Zingerman's has never forgotten to give back to the place they call home.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Zingerman's Delicatessen, Paul Saginaw, Ari Weinzwieg, and the entire Zingerman's team on this special day. We are grateful for their four decades spent nourishing and enriching our community in Ann Arbor. We wish them the very best in the years to come.

CHRIS COALMAN-ANGELO

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 7, 2022

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Chris Coalman-Angelo (Angelo) for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award.

Angelo is a student at Arvada High School and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Angelo is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Angelo for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge

Service Ambassador for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

“SIX TRIPLE EIGHT” CONGRESSIONAL GOLD MEDAL ACT OF 2021

SPEECH OF

HON. KWEISI MFUME

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 28, 2022

Mr. MFUME. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the legacy of the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion, known as the “Six Triple Eight.” I also rise to support S. 321, the legislation to award a Congressional Gold Medal in honor of the Battalion's patriotism, valor, and achievements.

Since its first mission in 1945, the Six Triple Eight was comprised of 855 Black women including 824 enlisted personnel and 31 officers. Groundbreaking for the time, the Six Triple Eight was the only African American women's unit of its size to serve overseas during World War II. Most of the 6888th worked as postal clerks, but others were cooks, mechanics, and held support positions so that the 6888th was a self-sufficient unit.

The Six Triple Eight was led by Major Charity Edna Adams and trained for their overseas mission at Fort Oglethorpe in Georgia. In practice, the Battalion's assignment entailed more than ensuring the swift delivery of mail. Rather, the Battalion was also trained to identify enemies by air and sea, meet the physical demands of military service, and evacuate targeted ships.

Amid war, the tenacity of these brave women never wavered. Rain or shine, day in and day out, the Six Triple Eight worked around the clock, operating under their motto, “no mail, low morale.” These women sacrificed despite knowing their return home would be to an America that still denied their basic rights and liberties.

I am proud to support this measure that honors such a courageously driven Battalion of women and bestows them the highest expression of national appreciation Congress can grant.

I urge swift passage of S. 321, the “Six Triple Eight” Congressional Gold Medal Act of 2021.

FOOTBALL STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

HON. J. FRENCH HILL

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 7, 2022

Mr. HILL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Harding Academy in Searcy and Robinson High School in Little Rock as Arkansas State Football Champions.

Harding Academy defeated Prescott with a score of 47 to 25 to come the 3A Football State Champions, marking the third year in a row they have won the state championship with a grand total of 9 championships.

Robinson High School defeated the reigning State Champions, Shiloh Christian, 41 to 14 to become the 4A Football State Champions. This marked Robinson High School's fourth state championship victory.

I am proud of the hard work and dedication from the players, coaches, and administrators who made these accomplishments possible.

Keep making central Arkansas proud.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate of February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. This title requires all such committees to notify the Office of the Senate Daily Digest—designated by the Rules Committee—of the time, place and purpose of the meetings, when scheduled and any cancellations or changes in the meetings as they occur.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.

Meetings scheduled for Tuesday, March 8, 2022 may be found in the Daily Digest of today's RECORD.
